1. If there's been heavy rain parts of the walk may be very muddy and fields waterlogged – recommend gaiters are worn
2. Paths may be faint where crossing fields with crops – alternative directions are given where this may happen
3. You will cross the A43 and the A5 – this is clearly mentioned in the description below
4. Livestock will be present in some fields, please keep dogs under control
5. There is free parking (up to three hours) along Northampton Road – opposite Saracens Head Hotel
6. Public Transport is available from Northampton and Milton Keynes (buses X89; 89)

Question 1: Look back & describe the right-hand marker on the fence?

Walk around fallen tree & bear left, about 100mtrs in front of you, you will see a white disc on a post with a new post next to it, head towards the post, exit the field over the stile and turn right following right hand edge of field, exit the field over double stile.

Continue in the same direction crossing field exit field over stile and head towards buildings, on exiting the field continue in same direction along concrete track towards the buildings. Cross over stile onto road and continue in the same direction heading toward a telephone box which will be on your right, continue to follow this road out of the village of Caldecote. As the road goes around to the right take the bridleway directly ahead of you going through the old rusting iron gate and continue along tracks hedge on left.

Continue into next field keeping to left hand side of field, hedge on left, after about 250mtrs go through gate on left way marker disc on post and turn right, hedge on right. Exit the field through the gate and continue in the same direction hedge still on right ignoring gates on your right continue in the same direction hedge on right. Exit the field through the rusty gate and continue in the same direction hedge still on right.

Question 2: How way marker discs are there on the gate and what are the colour of the arrows?

After about 5mtrs take the distinctive path on your left and head towards the two trees which are close together, cross over small wooden bridge and over stile, head just to the left of the lone tree in the middle of the field. Cross over the stile and continue in the same direction, wire fence on right, cross over stile and continue in same direction, as you come over the brow of the hill you will see gap in hedge, head towards gap and cross over stile and continue in same direction. As you go past the hollow in the ground with a single tree on your right, turn right and head up bank, cross over stile and turn right.

After about 5mtrs turn left heading along track, after about 30mtrs hedge will be on your right, cross over concrete track over stile into field and continue in same direction hedge on right. Go through green metal gate and continue in the same direction hedge on right, cross over stile and continue in the same direction following distinctive footpath. As you go down the bank if it has been raining the stream may not be following its usual course so take care, go over small wooden bridge, cross over stile and continue in the same direction. As you come to the wooden fence on your right (white building in front of you) follow the fence around to the right, (there are stiles in this fence which is the official footpath, but as it only cuts off a very small corner, no harm staying in the field). Go over stile next to the white house to road and turn left.

Question 3: What is the name & number of the house with wooden porch to the right of the white house?

Question 4: How many way marker arrows are there on the post?

Continue in the same direction hedge on right. Go through open gate into field, at the end of the field follow tracks for about 1km. Go through metal hand gate (may be very muddy) and continue along track passing farm buildings on your left. Soon the tracks turn into a road, bear left & continue along road passing houses on your left.

When you reach the road junction with small grass triangle cross over and take signposted footpath just to the right of the village notice board passing green iron barrier wall on left. At the end of the wall you may see a faint path going through field, if a path is not obvious then turn left and follow edge of field, hedge on left. Ignore wooden footbridge with two hand rails on your left and continue to follow field. Follow edge of field as it goes around to the right and cross over small wooden bridge with one hand rail and cross over stile into field, continue in same direction.

Cross stile over small wooden bridge and then head towards distinctive path to the right of lone tree. Follow path heading towards the left-hand end of the wall in front of you. Go up the bank (you will note there are way marker posts, but they have fallen down) cross road with care, this is the A5. Stay on footpath passing Jacks Hill Café on your right and then Bell Plantation Garden Centre on your left. At the roundabout where the A5 meets the A43 cross at the Pelican Crossing going straight over to stay on the A5 back towards Towcester and the start point, The Saracens Head.
